

Acting opportunities for adults

MED Theatre is running improvisation classes for adults.

The sessions are informal and fun, and are ideal for those that have experience of acting as well as those that don't and want to try something new.

Participants will be coached by MED Theatre in the safe environment of their studio in Moretonhampstead to explore different characters in varying scenarios. For more information call 01647 441356 or email info@medtheatre.co.uk. The sessions are free of charge.
