

NATURE

*As I stand upon this rock I
Feel as if I am a spot
Within Nature's beauty and love.
Many people's past dreams float above.*

*Tangled and twisted are the branches
Wrapped around every tree
And every bit tells a story
Of everything we see.*

*And out of the corner of my eye
There is a waterfall
Falling into the
Dart Splashing as it falls.*

*As the silence falls around
The whispers of all the creatures
Mix together to make a big sound –
It's all part of life's features.*

Samantha Truckle (2004)